

5th

World Congress for the Advancement of Surgery

20-21.10.2015 • Hilton, Tel Aviv

Mariana Berho

Dr. Mariana Berho graduated medical school from the University of Buenos Aires after which she moved to the US for further training. She completed her residency in Anatomic and Clinical Pathology at Mount Sinai Medical Center in 1995 and subsequently fellowships in Oncological Surgical Pathology at Memorial Sloan Kettering in New York and Immunopathology at the University of Miami. Dr. Berho joined Cleveland Clinic Florida in 2000 where she has served as the chairperson for the Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine since 2004. Her interests are centered on gastrointestinal pathology as well medico-renal and transplant pathology. Dr. Berho is currently the Chair for the Division of Research which is part of the Lerner Research Institute at main campus in Ohio. She is a Professor in Biomedical Science at Florida International University. Dr. Berho has published approximately 100 peer reviewed manuscripts as well as numerous invited editorials and textbook chapters; she frequently delivers invited lectures on Gastrointestinal Pathology around the world on topic such as colorectal cancer and inflammatory bowel disease.